Festive blessings to you

A big warm welcome to our 2022 Christmas Gift Guide! This year we've sought out small, ethical family-run companies so you can shop with a clear conscience. There's something for everyone inside, from tiny tots to grannies. If you're buying new, make sure that your purchase makes a difference to an actual family (rather than big biz bottom line).

Oooh, and to celebrate the season we'll be sharing recipes, ideas and more over on Instagram @thegreenparentmag. Come join us for figgy pudding, kindness advent ideas, Christmas traditions and more.

Wishing you and your family much love this festive season,
Melissa - Editor, The Green Parent
